

What's your most frustrating customer support story? I remember a time when I got into a menu loop on a call and couldn't get to a person to talk to. There's other times I've spent hours on hold hoping to get a real person to help me with my problem. With the increase in automation, off shore customer service centers and the use of scripts, it can often feel impossible to get the specific help needed.

Have you ever thought of God as a source of support? The Bible says God is always available to anyone who would call upon him.

The Lord is near to all who call on him,
to all who call on him in truth.

Psalm 145:18

No complicated ID verification or waiting on hold to speak to the God of the universe! Yet it's not always easy to call for help is it? It requires some humility to admit you can't fix things yourself. Perhaps even more so with God. There can be a part of us that feels unworthy or guilty before God. Do you know that instinct is actually right? Each one of us has ignored our divine creator.

Each one of us has acted like we know better than the one who made everything including us. But God still wants us and loves us. Jesus died and rose again so that we can call out to God and be forgiven for ignoring and rejecting him.

For everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved.

Romans 10:13

Right now as you read this, whatever time of day it is, 24/7, whatever day of the week it is, God is there and willing to hear your call for help, to hear about your difficulties and problems and save you from your sins.

Call out now for the support you need.

Prayer

Dear Jesus, I call out to you now and ask for your help. Forgive me from the wrong I have done and save me from my sin. Please rescue me from the trouble I find myself in and fill me with your peace. Thank you that you love me and are near to those that call on you. Amen.
